

Guayasbate

THE LODGE

CORDOBA - ARGENTINA

A different Dove Shooting experience

Have you ever seen a Dove Shooting Lodge like this?

About Us

H & H Outfitters, owned and operated by Alex and Zeke Hayes, have spent over 20 years exceeding their client's expectations and developing a reputation as the finest in the business. In line with our commitment to excellence, we are proud to promote our newest lodge as an option to Hunters who require a 7 Star Dove Shooting experience. Gourmet food, great Argentine Malbecs from our wine cellar and a charismatic staff will make your trip a unique experience.

Guayascate boasts 18,000 square feet of pure luxury with ten expertly appointed rooms. The Lodge allows for group sizes to be small and intimate with singles or grow as large as twenty hunters with a two guest per room configuration.

The Lodge features a Spa with an infinity swimming pool, two large, heated Jacuzzi's (inside and outside), a complete weight room and massage therapy to soothe those tired muscles after a day on the Shooting Fields.

The Lodge staff has been trained to cater to your every need. Here everybody knows your name and how important you are. Our reputation is founded on customer satisfaction and having you back is as important as having you here.

Let the Birds come to You

The Lodge sits on over 1,500 acres of the best crop rotation and roosting areas in Cordoba, giving a whole new meaning to hunting near the Lodge. You will watch in awe as wave after wave of Eared Dove pass over your balcony. In addition to this property, Guayascope has an inventory of nearly a thousand square miles of available hunting lands assuring that every customer will have the ultimate Wingshooting experience.

Location

AMERICAN CONTINENT

ARGENTINA

The Lodge is located 1.5 hours by paved road from Cordoba's International Airport.

Photography by Marcos Furer

